

EEA-Eionet day

Wednesday 1 March 2023

DGI Byen-CPH Conference, Tietgensgade 65, Copenhagen

Agenda | Version 24 February 2023

09.00 – 09.30 Registration

The first block will be in theatre style and streamed. Meeting room: Plenary.

Masters of ceremony through the day: Katja Rosenbohm (Head of Communications) and Jock Martin (Head of Coordination, Networks and Strategy), European Environment Agency (EEA)

09.30 – 09.45 Official welcome Formal opening by Laura Burke (EEA Management Board Chair) and Hans Bruyninckx (Executive Director, EEA)

09.45 – 10.15 Inspirational keynote Hans Bruyninckx (Executive Director, EEA)

10.15 – 11.00 Eionet in the knowledge-policy game Panel debate on challenges and opportunities featuring Laura Burke (EEA MB Chair, Ireland), Tanja Suni (EEA MB member, Finland), Michal Pastvinský (EEA MB Vice-Chair, Czech Republic)
Concluding remarks by Hans Bruyninckx (Executive Director, EEA)

11.00 – 11.15 3, 2, 1, Go! Flash presentations by EEA:
The new EEA website by Marie Jaegly and Antonio De Marinis
Eionet Tools 2.0 preview Ana Cardoso and Nils Hettich

11.15 – 11.30 Closing Final remarks to close the streamed session by Laura Burke (EEA MB Chair) and Hans Bruyninckx (Executive Director, EEA)

The rest of the meeting will not be streamed

11.30 – 11.45 Break and change of location

11.45 – 13.00 Eionet delivers Showcasing of success stories from the countries, Eionet Group projects, and European Topic Centres' work.
The full list of presented projects with descriptions is available on the event website (www.eea.europa.eu/eea-eionet-day)
Foyer | Marketplace with stands and coffee stations.

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 14.55 Cut across workshops: Round 1

1.1 Conservation and restoration of biodiversity and human benefits of nature and ecosystems | Breakout room: Sankt Hans Torv

1.2 Climate in the Irish mind | Breakout room: Kastrup Lufthavn

1.3 Where Circular Economy and Climate meet – how further uptake of circular approaches can foster the fight against climate change | Breakout room: Nørrebros Runddel

1.4 Public participation and sustainability transitions | Breakout room: Spisehuset

14.55 – 15.05 Change of location

15.05 – 16.00 Cut across workshops: Round 2

2.1 Development of cross-sectoral, measurable targets for climate change adaptation | Breakout room: Spisehuset

2.2 Integrated water management – sustainably managing biodiversity, pollution, and water resources in a climate change context | Breakout room: Sankt Hans Torv

		2.3 Digitalisation as enabler for innovation in data management Breakout room: Nørrebros Runddel
		2.4 Social media & impact: a myth or an untapped potential? Breakout room: Kastrup Lufthavn
16.00 – 16.10	Change of location
16.10 – 16.55	National corner	Presentations of new national Eionet and ETC structures, Action plans and priorities. The full list of presenting countries and ETCs will be available on the event website (www.eea.europa.eu/eea-eionet-day) Foyer Marketplace with stands and coffee stations.
17.00 – 17.30	Science & drinks	A dialogue: Save the humans – meeting public demand for environment and climate information by Catherine Ganzleben (Head of Air Pollution, Environment and Health Group, EEA) and Gerardo Sanchez (Environment, Health and Well-being Expert, EEA) Meeting room: Plenary
17.30 – 17.45	Closing	Formal closing of the day by Laura Burke (EEA MB Chair) and Hans Bruyninckx (Executive Director, EEA) Meeting room: Plenary
17.45 – 18.30	Networking Foyer/ Plenary
18.30 – 24.00	Dinner and party 3 rd and 2 nd floor respectively	