

Rositsa Karamfilova-Blagova

Mrs. Rositsa Karamfilova-Blagova is the Executive Director of the Bulgarian Executive Environment Agency. She is responsible for human resource management, budgeting and finance and resource management, accounting, legal matters (including procurement and grants) and facility management. She participates in the network of Heads of administration of EU Agencies (EPA Network).

She has a PhD degree in Sustainable waste management and Renewable energy sources and Master in Ecology and environmental protection from University of Chemical Technology and Metallurgy in Sofia.

She took up duties in the Bulgarian Executive Environment Agency in April 2021. Prior to this duty she had extensive administrative experience as Head of the unit Strategies and environmental programs and as Head of the unit International programs and projects at the Ministry of Environment and Water in Sofia. She has also a considerable EEA experience as former NFP, NRC- Sustainable consumption, production and waste as well as NRC-State of environment. At the Bulgarian Executive Environment Agency she started in 2005 as an expert in the field of waste monitoring, environmental indicators, quality control in greenhouse gas inventory - Waste sector (QA/QC).

Rositsa Karamfilova-Blagova has a considerable experience in public administration and environmental assessment. She has a number of publications in the fields of biotechnology, heat transfer processes in a biogas-reactor, energy saving and ecology. She has participated in many projects, international conferences, congresses and meetings.