

Irene Constantinou

Irene Constantinou is a Senior Environmental Officer at the Department of Environment in Cyprus. She is the head of the EIA/SEA team and also deals with all horizontal / EU issues of the Department. She is also the focal point of the SDGs at the Ministry of Environment and recently was appointed the coordination of the RRF and Green Deal within the Department.

She has an MSc from Harvard University and Environment and Health and MSc from Louisiana State University of Environmental Science (Management and Planning) and a BSc from the University of Indianapolis in MIS. She has been in the Department of Environment since 2001, and was appointed at the Permanent Representation of Cyprus in Brussels for 3 years (2004-2007). Also, during the Cyprus Presidency, she was the coordinator for 2011-2012. Before the Department of Environment, she worked as a Greenpeace campaigner for the Mediterranean region.