

BRIAN CARROLL

Brian Carroll is Director General for Environment – Climate, Air Quality, EU and International in Ireland. He is responsible for leading on environment, climate and air quality policy, and represents Ireland in related EU and international fora.

He has a B.Comm. (Management), M.B.S. (Organisation Studies) and an M.Econ.Sc. from the National University of Ireland; a B.A. (Anthropology) from the Dublin Business School; and M.Sc. (Economic Policy) from Trinity College, Dublin.

He joined the Department of the Environment, Climate and Communications in 2008, and previously held positions as Head of Finance, Head of Renewable Energy, and Director General for Natural Resources.