

Jennefer Baarn

Jennefer Baarn is head of section EU within the ministry of Infrastructure and Environment in the Netherlands. She has a degree in Economics from the Erasmus University in Rotterdam.

She started her career at the Ministry of Economic Affairs (1998-2001) at the EU-directorate as a junior policy advisor. From 2001-2004 she had worked as a national expert at the European Commission/DG MARKT (now GROW) on the single market for services. In 2005 she returned to the ministry of Economic Affairs and has worked on a broad range of issues over the years, such as the Lisbon strategy (Europe 2020), telecoms, competitiveness and the single market.

September 2016 she moved to the international directorate of the ministry of Infrastructure, responsible for the general EU-coordination and horizontal EU-issues such as the Environment Implementation Review (EIR) and the new Multi-annual Financial Framework.
