

Marilena Daniela DONCUȚĂ

Marilena Daniela Doncuță is a senior counsellor in the Directorate for Evaluation of Impact and Pollution Control at the Ministry of Environment, Waters and Forests. She has a bachelor's degree in environmental science from Faculty of Geography of the University of Bucharest and an master's degrees in environmental science from Politehnica University of Bucharest.

She took up duties in the ministry in 2007 and is responsible with elaboration and updating of national legislation regarding national infrastructure for spatial information, management of emergency situations generated by the production of dangerous meteorological phenomena and participates in the establishment of the strategy for the organization of meteorological activities at national level. She is Romanian representative in the INSPIRE Maintenance and Implementation Group, from octomber 2021 is Romania representative in Copernicus User Forum and from 2014 to 2021 was vice-president of the Council of National Infrastructure for Spatial Information in Romania.