

AIGA GRASMANE

Aiga Grasmane is the Director of Climate Change Department at the Ministry of Climate and Energy of the Republic of Latvia. She is responsible for coordination of developing and implementing climate policy, including long term strategy development as well as coordination of national implementation of climate policy sector wide. Ms. Grasmane holds a Master's Degree of Business Administration from the University of Salford, Manchester, UK.

Aiga Grasmane has been in the current position since July, 2023. Before that she has worked as policy advisor to the Minister of Agriculture and as Managing Director of Latvian Forest Owners' Association.