

Tanya VLADIMIROVA

Mrs. Tanya Vladimirova was appointed as Bulgaria's National Focal Point at the European Environment Agency in March 2016.

She holds a Master degree in Environmental Expertise and Control from NBU-Sofia. She has received training in Environmental legislation, Complex permits, and Control. Previously she obtained a BSc. in Sociology from SWU "Neofit Rilski" – Blagoevgrad, where she gained expertise in focus groups guidance, content analyses, conducting surveys and interviews.

She began her professional career in 2013 at the Executive Environment Agency, as a junior expert and was promoted as Head of the International Cooperation Department. In the period from August 2020 to November 2022 she acted as National Inventory Compiler and as GHG and NECD/CLRTAP emission calculations expert for the Waste sector.

Subsequently, she became National Data Flow Coordinator for Bulgaria.

In addition, she was appointed as National Coordinator for the EU campaigns EUROPEANMOBILITYWEEK и MOBILITYACTION.

With over 11 years of experience in project management and implementation, Mrs. Tanya Vladimirova has successfully led numerous national and international projects under various EU programs, including Horizon2020, Copernicus, EEA Grants, EU Structural Funds, TAIEX, INTERREG, and Advisory Assistance Programme (AAP)-Germany.

She has also completed a two-week traineeship at key European Institutions, namely European Commission, European Parliament, EEAS and others, gaining in-depth practical expertise in EU structure, EU structural funds, EEA grants etc.