

4th Meeting of the high-level network of environmental economists

Thursday 26 January 2006

Copenhagen, European Environment Agency

Draft agenda

- 10h00 Welcome by EEA and DG ENV
- 10h15 Tour de table
- 10h45 The cost of inaction for biodiversity loss including:
- how to measure and value ecosystems functions (relevant for the biodiversity strategy, soil and marine TS)
 - methodologies being developed under the Environmental Liability Directive and Natura 2000 Directive
 - introducing market based instruments for biodiversity
 - research needs for the future
- 12h45 Lunch
- 14h00 The cost of inaction for biodiversity loss (continued)
- 15h00 The links between environment policy, innovation and competitiveness
- 16.00 Assessment of the network and its meetings
- 16.30 Close